Sale of the ship

By resolution of the extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders on 12th January 2006, the MV “Mare Tuscum” was sold to the company Starlio Shipping Co. Ltd., Limassol/Cyprus, for USD 24.0 million and was handed over on 16th February 2006 against payment of the full purchase price.

Due to sale of the MV “Mare Tuscum” it was possible to distribute dividends to the shareholders of the partnership in a total amount of 116 % on the limited partnership capital. That is 4.6 % more than predicted during the ballot regarding the sale. The last dividend payment of 3 % was made at the beginning of December 2007.

After some difficult years, the ship project “Mare Tuscum” could therefore be brought to a successful conclusion for all those involved.

¹⁾ The MV “Mare Tuscum” was sold on 16.02.2006; the prospectus figures are not shown here, as the end of the scheduled lifetime by 2009 according to the prospectus means that these figures cannot be compared with the actual figures.
